STRONG HELPERS' TEACHINGS provides enrichment for the helping practices of Indigenous and non-Indigenous students, practitioners, and scholars in the human services. All those in the helping professions are challenged to share these important Indigenous teachings without specific practices being appropriated.

CYNDY BASKIN, Mi'kmaq and Celtic Nations, is Associate Professor of Social Work at Ryerson University in Toronto and an active and energetic teacher, researcher, and community builder both in Canada and internationally. She has written widely on these and other topics.
